

"Types of Violence Perpetrated by Men Against Women in the Countries Traveled"

1

Sexual harassment:
Sexual harassment is one of the most common types of violence committed by men against women while traveling.

Examples include verbal or physical sexual harassment, forcible touching, or attempted rape.

2

Physical Violence:
Physical violence is a type of violence committed by men to harm women's bodies during travel. Examples include battery, assault, or use of force.

3

Verbal Attacks:
Verbal attacks are a common form of violence perpetrated by men against women while traveling and may include swearing, insults or threats.

4

Gender Based Discrimination:
Gender-based discrimination is a type of violence that occurs when men treat women differently due to their gender while traveling. Examples include unfair treatment by employers or hotel employees, inequality of opportunities or gender-based oppression.

5

Economic Exploitation:
Women who travel may be subject to economic exploitation by men. Examples of this include inadequate pay, poor working conditions, or forced labor by the employer.

TED ÜNİVERSİTESİ
TOPLUMSAL CİNSİYET
ÇALIŞMALARI MERKEZİ
Necati Arda Yıldırım

